

LEADERSHIP RESOURCES

The Delivering Leadership Excellence course is not currently running. It is due to be further developed alongside our colleagues from other professions and it will be advertised when available.

If you are currently looking for resources to support development of your leadership skills check out the following resources:

01 Project Lift is a really good starting place exploring your strengths and areas you may want to develop

02 TURAS Leadership & Management Zone has lots of really beneficial resources

03 Staff Wellbeing links are useful to support yourselves and your teams

04 HR Online Leadership and Management for Teams and Individuals

Use the tab sections to discover different leadership tools such as coaching, paired learning, and the leadership network. There are numerous resources available here including a number of e-learning modules, Quality Improvement WebPages and helpful papers you may find beneficial.

05 Leadership Academy \(and the Healthcare Leadership Model\)

06 Making a PDPR count

07 Kings Fund - Clinical Leadership

08 Institute for Healthcare Improvement \(IHI\) - Joy in Work

09 #SpacesforListening involves working in small facilitated groups using a simple structured approach to give you a chance to listen and share. In addition to feeling heard, it is hoped this experience can help to enhance the quality of your future conversations with team members

Courage to manage is a resource that aims to provide you with a number of tools to support difficult conversations with more confidence

For info about #SpacesforListening, Courage to Manage conversations or any other questions please email ODTeam@nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk